

August 2020 Revision

The process of Equality Impact Assessment (EIA) should be embedded into new policy development, policy review, strategic and operational decisions<sup>1</sup> in order that inequalities and discrimination are eliminated or addressed at the earliest opportunity.

What is the purpose of the Policy?	Define the University's Code of Practice for External Examiners: Undergraduate and Taught Postgraduate courses.
Who is responsible for the Policy?	Head of Quality Assurance and Validation.
Which strategic priorities?	Our Strategic Priority 1: dfcj ]X]b[ 'Ub 'YI W`Ybh'YXi W]h]cb 'UbX'gh XYbh'YI dYf]YbW
Which Groups are stakeholders in the Policy?	Students. Staff.
Will the Policy be applied uniformly to all areas of the University?	Yes.

August 2020 Revision

What quantitative or qualitative data is available to advise the Policy?	Student records.

What Groups have been consulted in drafting the Policy?	The Senate Regulations and Special Cases Committee is responsible for the approval, amendment, and definition of this code.

August 2020 Revision

How will the Policy be monitored to ensure that it is achieving its aims?