BANGOR UNIVERSITY EQUALITY IMPACT ASSESSMENT

March 2020 Revision

About the Policy:

March 2020 Revision

Monitoring
What quantitative or qualitative data is available to advise the Policy?	Allegations of academic misconduct are analysed annually with trends noted and reported to relevant groups.

Consultation
What Groups have been consulted in drafting the Policy?	The Senate Regulations and Special Cases Committee is responsible for the approval and amendment of this procedure.
How has consultation taken place?	Regular meetings of the key stakeholders occur each year and records kept. Any staff member or student can suggest changes to the procedure through the Compliance and Regulations Assistant.
How has consultation informed the development of the Policy?	Consultation with key stakeholders has occurred to increase accessibility of the procedure to users. The procedure has a set review cycle whereby developments will be captured.

Implementation
How will the Policy be implemented?	The Senate Regulations and Special Cases Committee is responsible for the approval and amendment of this procedure. The procedure will be available online at www.bangor.ac.uk and also in print upon request.
	Webpages dedicated to students have been created to provide academic guidance and to signpost services in the University, in order to discourage academic misconduct. Student emails and screensavers have been sent out to advertise the webpages.
Who will be responsible for the implementation of the Policy?	The Head of Governance and Compliance is responsible for ensuring that the implementation of the procedure is in line with what is stated in the document. The Senate Regulations and Special Cases Committee will oversee this.
